

HUMAN SERVICES PROFESSIONAL

CHIPPEWA FALLS - $17.00/HR

“ I enjoy working at CRI because of the people. Both the company employees and the consumers I've had the opportunity to work with so far. It's so rewarding when you can see changes in one's behavior as a result of my tips and coaching . Jeremy Shong, Employment Trainer ”

Position Summary

CRI Inc. is seeking a candidate to provide case management to individuals learning job skills despite the presence of special needs. The successful candidate would be available 7:30AM to 4:00PM Monday through Friday. Further, the Human Services Professional provides support to manage the day to day needs according to vocational assessments, plans and goals of the individual. On the job training is provided to support the HSP in case management and drafting paperwork accurately and on time to HIPAA standards. This is not a complete job description, but one will be made available to you upon the receipt of a resume. Come and help us meet our mission every day.

$500
Signing
Bonus!

Please connect with us by email
hr@crind.org or calling:

715-726-7822

Qualifications

- ◆ Two years of direct work experience in human services including supervisory duties working with individuals who may have a disability. A Bachelors degree is preferred but not required.
- ◆ Access to reliable transportation , availability for in person work, and ability to creatively problem solve.
- ◆ Successful completion of a Department of Justice background check.
- ◆ CRI is a great place to grow as a professional in Human Services.

“I love working with the consumers we serve; it is a great feeling when I help someone have that “ah-ha” moment when they start to see themselves as more than their disability. I love to show our consumers their value; how special, unique and talented they are.”
~ Nicole Klingenberg, Employment Specialist

Chippewa River Industries is an equal opportunity employer.